

Introduction

Joe Nichols Jr.

Joe Nichols Jr. understands first hand about challenges that life presents. At the age of 20, Joe was in an automobile accident that left him paralyzed from the neck down.

Joe eventually recognized that he would have to come to terms with his new life in order for his dreams to become a reality.

With a "Can Do" attitude and positive spirit Joe has achieved the near-impossible.

Today, Joe is a Husband, Father, Business Owner, Civic Leader, and Motivational Speaker.

Joe has been featured in the New York Times Best Seller "Success: Built To Last" and is referred to as "enduringly successful" by author Mark Thompson.

Joe's company owns and operates 22 freight logistics franchises in 9 states and has received numerous awards including the prestigious Chairman's Award in 2006 for outstanding achievement. His company was also chosen as a model franchise in 2007.

Joe is a member of the National Speakers Association and serves on the Board of Directors of the Houston chapter.

Ladies and Gentlemen: Please welcome Joe Nichols Jr.
